Spoken English

Lets Speak program is ICT Training's great new way to learn English, and quite a departure from the standard books and tools. Instead of spending hours reading and writing, students have the opportunity to engage in challenging and fun speaking and listening as well as reading and writing activities with their colleagues.

Language educators have long used the concepts of four basic language skills:

- Listening
- Speaking
- Reading
- Writing

The four basic skills are related to each other by two parameters:

- The mode of communication: oral or written
- The direction of communication: receiving and producing the message

We may represent the relationships among the skills in the following chart:

	Oral	Written
Receptive	Listening	Reading
Productive	Speaking	Writing

The Lets Speak comprehensive course aims:

To develop in learner the four basic skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing in a well graded manner.

To bridge the gap between the learners and world with English.

To enable them to use English for day-to-day communication, in academic and social situations.

To shape the way learners learn English.

To develop, nurture and enrich their vocabulary.
To provide a sound knowledge of grammar and the ability to apply it in spoken and written communication.

To equip them with the skills and abilities required for learning on their own with a view to promoting learner autonomy.

To inculcate in them the habit of reading extensively and appreciating the literature in the language.

To create opportunities for learners to realize their creative potential.

To prepare the learners to use English for global communication.
